Curriculum & Instruction Materials Review
July 2018

As part of our curriculum work in Celina Schools, we review instructional materials on a regular basis and make recommendations for new materials as necessary. Additionally, we have established a 6-year textbook review cycle.

This summer, Celina Schools plans to adopt a small number of materials throughout the school district.

- In 4th grade, we will adopt a new Social Studies textbook series known as The Ohio Adventure. This social studies series includes all of the fourth grade social studies standards in depth. It is the only book that produces an “Ohio” version of a 4th grade Social Studies book that specifically addresses Ohio’s standards. It shows the historical sequence of events from our past from the early Native Americans in our region to Ohio’s role in the Civil War. It also has a unit on government including the branches of government, the Constitution, and rights and responsibilities which are the fourth grade power standards. The series also has many pictures and discussion questions to keep the students engaged in the learning process. The Ohio Adventure will be an excellent addition to our fourth grade social studies curriculum.
- For High School Anatomy, we plan to adopt a book titled Essentials of Human Anatomy. This book is a friendly, down-to-earth writing style that presents anatomy and physiology as a “story” that is easily understood and remembered. Highlighting clinical applications, this program prepares students for both college and careers.

- In High School AP Literature, we plan to use this list of novels:

Metamorphosis	King Lear
The Power and the Glory	Cat on a Hot Tin Roof
1984	One Day in the Life of Ivan Denisovich
A Midsummer Night’s Dream	The Sun Also Rises
Rosencrantz and Guildenstern are Dead	Heart of Darkness
Oedipus the Plays of Sophocles	Invisible Man
Their Eyes Were Watching God	Cry, the Beloved Country
Othello	David Copperfield
Wuthering Heights	As You Like It
Henry V	Great Expectations
Richard III	Oliver Twist
The Turn of the Screw and Other Fiction	Portrait of the Artist
Crime and Punishment	Sophocles The Complete Plays
Pride and Prejudice	Waiting for Godot
