Subject: Deduct day?

Mr Steiner,

I know that you and I communicated about the additional deduct day on the 2nd of April, but I was not sure if I needed to make that request official with a written request. Please advise.

Just FYI... I have been attempting to change my flight to be home on the 5th instead of the 6th of April. I thought it was accomplished, but as of right now, I have no flight to anywhere...ugggh!! I have to keep reminding myself that the beach and family time will make all this hassle worth it!!

Let me know about the deduct day and I will send a quick email your way today!!

Thanks!

Lora Darras
